Fort Wright, KY — VonLehman & Co., one of the largest accounting firms in the Greater Cincinnati region, is celebrating its move and opening of their new headquarters at Wright's Summit Office Complex on Jan. 12. "This relocation comes at an exciting time for VonLehman and the Northern Kentucky region," said Campbell County Judge Executive Steve Pendery, Chair of Northern Kentucky Tri-ED. "We've been working closely with VonLehman since the construction of the new complex began in 2015 to ensure that this space can help them serve clients, train employees, and grow." The firm moved 106 employees from the former headquarters in Fort Mitchell, KY, into the second and third floors of the Fort Wright complex. VonLehman will continue to operate its Indianapolis office and its Cincinnati office in The Tower at the Kenwood Collection.

"On behalf of city council, our residents and our existing business community, I would like to extend a very hearty welcome to the VonLehman team," said Fort Wright Mayor Dave Hatter. "We are very fortunate to have a such a prestigious and successful firm choose Fort Wright for their headquarters and we wish them nothing but continued success in the years to come."

VonLehman was recently ranked 156 in Inside Public Accounting's Sixth Annual Ranking of the Nation's Top 200 Accounting Firms—a 20-spot improvement from past years. The IPA 200 is regarded as the benchmarking gold standard in the accounting industry. The move stems from expected business growth and the commitment to best serve clients and anticipate future capacity needs.

"Designed for collaborative efforts and allowing for firm expansion, our new headquarters reflects the firm's forward thinking direction, commitment to its employees, and investment in its community," said VonLehman President Brian Malthouse. "Our growth depends on exceeding our clients' expectations every day and keeping our employees challenged and fulfilled. I'm proud to say our leadership team is succeeding."
