

Ft. Mitchell, KY – Northern Kentucky Tri-ED announced that Victoria Hafele has joined Northern Kentucky Tri-ED as Economic Development Specialist. Hafele was previously an economic development intern for Tri-ED and is a recent graduate from Northern Kentucky University with a degree in Economics, where she also served as President of the University’s Activities Programming Board.

“During her time as an intern at Tri-ED, Victoria has demonstrated a high degree of analytical skills and a talent for tackling data-driven projects” said Dan Tobergte, President and CEO of Northern Kentucky Tri-ED. “Our region is experiencing tremendous growth and we are excited to have talented individuals who can help us continue to grow. We look forward to Victoria’s continued contributions to Tri-ED.”
